Modulus for "51"

We'll never

Forget H.H.S. in "51"

No, we never will forget our four years at Huntington High. The classes . . . the kids . . . the clubs . . . the styles . . . the fun we had in and out of school will long be remembered. We'll recall how it happened that we became so well acquainted with the word "Communism," of its unjustness and terrorism, and of the fact that many of our classmates had left or would leave to help conquer the dreaded forces.

Memories may easily slip away from us unless we have a reminder. For this purpose we, the Modulus Staff of 1951, have brought to you our recollections to be enjoyed by you in your years to come. May You Never Forget!

—The Editor.

Remember the Spring and Fall gatherings . . .

The Halls we Roamed . . .

Dancing at the Swing-Inn

Studying in the Stacks . . .

And those Athletically Inclined

And the Administration

and Students . . .

Mr. Stephan

Our Superintendent, Mr. Stephan, isn't seen in the classroom; but he always knows what is going on. He puts the school government in running condition and has many tasks. Although he is very busy, he always has time for a smile and a friendly word.

Miss Langley

Miss Fredith Langley is the quiet and unassuming secretary to the superintendent. Although one hardly ever hears about this person, she helps the Superintendent to look after the finances and budget of the city schools and has many other duties.

School Board

L. to R. Mr. Burton Stephan, Mrs. Ruth M. Dunkin, Mr. O. K. Zeigler, Mr. Frank C. Helvie.

The members of the School Board this year are as follows:

President, O. K. Zeigler; Treasurer, Frank C. Helvie; Secretary, Ruth M. Dunkin; Superintendent, Burton Stephan.

The duty of these School Board members is to make the school budget and to supervise the employment of the teachers. The term of a member is three years.

Miss Betty Grossman

Each time we go into the office, we are greeted by Mr. Johnson's capable secretary, Miss Grossman. Though Betty has many duties to perform, she is never too busy to smile and help in any way she can.

Mr. Johnson

Mr. Harold S. Johnson, our principal, has the rather trying task of keeping our school in smooth running order. Besides his work as principal, Mr. Johnson teaches a class in American History. Although he is a busy man, he has time to stop and chat with the students and he is willing to help in every way possible.

Guidance Department

Back Row: Mr. Edward Burke, Miss Emma Kline.

This very helpful department was started in 1937 through the efforts of Miss Wilson and has grown so that now it helps every student in H. H. S. They help us choose courses for a job or career and always see that we are keeping up with our studies. The guidance department consists of: Mrs. Porter, Dean of Girls; Mr. Gordon, Dean of Boys; Mrs. Hillegas, Senior counselor; Mr. Gerdes, Junior Counselor; Miss Kline, Sophomore Counselor; and Mr. Burke, Freshman Counselor.

Custodian

. . . . "For they are jolly good fellows that nobody can deny." Yes, this is a toast to the men who play one of the largest parts in distinguishing our school from others we have seen. They are the men who pick up the paper you carelessly drop on the floor; they are the little elves that wipe away the rust and dirt that would give our halls and classrooms that untidy look; they are the reason you sometimes wonder if there is glass in the window, you can see through so clearly. It seems sort of silly to introduce the custodians, but here goes anyway, they are Emery Telfer, Oliver Helm, Dennis Nowels, and Fred Cussen. Thanks a lot.

Senior Officers

Jane Burris, Joann Hendricks, Phill Burchett, Doug Hum.

Seniors

At last the year we've all been waiting for is here—our Senior year. We began our last year in H. H. S. by electing the folowing officers: Phill Burchett, president, Doug Hum, vice-president; Jane Burris, secretary; and Joann Hendricks, treasurer. Geraldine Zahn and Bruce Gerdes served as our class sponsors for both our junior and senior years.

One of our most important achievements of the year was the Senior Class play, "One Foot in Heaven," given the nights of March 28, 29, and 30.

The gift committee of the Senior Class voted to replace the old public address system with a new one containing all the latest features. We of the Class of '51 hope that it will serve the school efficiently for a good many years to come.

To bring our high school years to a close, we were the guests of the Junior Class at the annual Junior-Senior Reception held May 24 at the Masonic Temple. As usual it was a beautiful and entertaining evening.

Class Colors: gray and coral rose

Class Motto: "Truth can stand alone."

Class Flower: Talisman rose

Senior Sponsors

Mr. Bruce Gerdes, Miss Geraldine Zahn

Freshmen

We're Freshmen and proud of it, too! How would you feel when people say: "Oh, she's a greenie!" or "maybe we can sell them a ticket for the elevator." They didn't stop to think they were freshmen not too long ago.

The upper classmen didn't interfere with our election of officers. Our President is Stephen Moon; Vice President, George Riseborough; Secretary, Anne Weesner; Treasurer, Gene Carroll; and Mrs. Hillegas for our sponsor.

Sophomores

Still the "in betweens," we Sophomores, with all our studies, had a lot of fun. We felt like old timers, but we were often reminded that we were still "underclassmen."

The main event of this Sophomore class of '51 was our class rings. Boy, are they SNAZZY! And, of course, there was that night we had so much fun at our class party.

Our choice of officers this year was: Dick Morris, President; Wayne Cozad, Vice-President; Bill Bond, Secretary; and Ronnie Crawley, Treasurer. Mr. Daniel Perry was elected as our class sponsor.

Juniors

The best Class of H. H. S., we think, are the Juniors. Don't you? We elected our officers early this fall; they are Duane Caley, President; Jean Bippus, Vice-President; Phyllis Krider, Secretary; and Charlie Cutshall, Treasurer; also we can't forget our Sponsors, Mr. Hummer and Mr. Ware, who, we say, did a fine job.

Those creatures that you saw running around at all the ball games and getting in your way were the Junior Candy Sellers who did a wonderful job this year.

The Styles

REMEMBER THOSE HIT TUNES, the ones we danced to at the Swing Inn or listened to over our favorite disc jockey program? Good Night Irene along with Aba - daba - daba, The Thing, Tennessee Waltz, and I Taut I Taw a Puddy Tat were the crazy ones. Then of course My Heart Cries For You, Be My Love, If, Dream a Little Dream, and Nevertheless were the heartbreakers that started many a couple going steady.

AND THE ENGAGEMENTS were more than ever, along with angora laddened class rings . . . so was the talk about Korea and who was drafted when . . . but we sat home and revived the Charleston and Uke (much to our parents' amazement) . . . cried over the Sectional . . . wondered who The Thing was . . . and still can't figure out how Clara, Gracie, Biceps and Gonnie got along at the Sweetheart Dance.

TOURNEY TIME CAME and along with it (as always) came some kind of fad. That year kids spent hours decorating their hats with everything but the kitchen sink just to cause a sensation . . . and believe me, they did. I wonder how much all of that stuff would sell for at even a junk yard?

in 1951

WE CLUMPED ALONG in the traditional saddles and loafers but added the smart, colored suede, crepe-soled jobs for something new . . . not to forget inherent white crew socks. Oh, but a new touch was added! Senior skirts came in proving that the boys had nothing on the girls . . . and beautiful plaid ones were quite the rage.

HAIR WAS A LITTLE LONGER than in 50, but everyone seemed to cling to the idea that Paris was nuts! Just look at the difference . . . girls still clung to little neck scarves on all occasions and were mad for jewelry . . . boys' class rings in particular.

TO BE SHARP the boys wore gabardine or wool slacks . . . good looking sport shirts . . . argyles (some bought, but many knitted by—no not their mothers) . . . and crepe soled suede shoes that added inches to their height.

TO HAVE A HOT-ROD was the cry of the wild geese (meaning boys). We couldn't believe some of them were real, let alone acknowledge the fact that they did run. But we did have quite the times riding in them, didn't we?

When they Crowned Her . . .

Miss Modulus of 1951 . . .

When the time came this year for the Modulus Revue, Sue Day had no idea that she would become Miss Modulus of 1951. After she had walked that long long trail to the stage with her "super salesman," Hal Lesh, she found that all her work was rewarded when Phill Burchett handed her the small silver bracelet. After it was all over, though, she agreed (as every Modulus Queen has before her) that all the work was certainly worth it.

Miss Sue Day ranks high in scholarship in the Junior class. She also takes a great interest in various activities including the Booster Club, Masque and Gavel, Sunshine Society, Modulus Staff, and has served on various committees. She has musical ability too. She plays the piano and flute. She is a member of the band and orchestra. She also finds time to add her alto voice to the choir and sextette.

She is truly a right person to be called "Miss Modulus."

Stars in Your Eyes

The 1951 Modulus Revue, "Stars in Your Eyes," was another success. From Club 310, the home of the Modulus, there was presented a variety of stars—singers, actors, dancers, comedians, and instrumentalists. All performed in a professional manner and gave a fine performance each of the three nights. The program moved fast and easy under the skillful handling of Phill Burchett and Hal Lesh, masters of ceremony. The stage setting was one of the most beautiful in recent years, thanks to Mr. Michael. As always, we think it was the best yet.

Our thanks to those who helped with the show: Leslie Wilbern, Cloyde Slater, McCabe, Day, J. E. Michael, Mrs. Beatrice Patterson, and Miss Esther Webber.

There will ever be a memory of "Stars in Your Eyes."

Modulus Staff

After deciding on the theme, "We'll Never Forget," the Modulus Staff worked diligently to make this yearbook one that is truly memorable. Each department of the staff under their managers assumed their full responsibility for their part in the annual, so we believe that this is the best yet. The entire staff worked without credit, and we think they deserve a word of appreciation for a job well done.

Mr. Wilbern, better known as "Willy," was a jack of trades this year as sponsor of the yearbook. We want to show our appreciation for all he has done for the Modulus and the Revue, so with firmness we say, "We'll Never Forget."

We all have a deep appreciation for our editor, Cindy Coyle, for all the time and effort given for our 1951 Modulus. She has capably planned the book, and supervised the carrying out of all plans. Our sincere thanks, Cindy.

Modulus Staff

Sahata

The Sahata was started in the fall of 1949. It began as a project in the Junior English class. For the first semester we had as our co-editors, Cindy Coyle and Jim Pinney. In the spring of 1950 they started writing up some radio news, and the students were on the radio once a week. Thanks to Bob Carter, we have as the name of our school paper The Sahata, which means

Sa-sees all
Ha-hears all
Ta-tells all

The paper is under the sponsorship of Miss Zahn who has done a wonderful job. This year the staff consists of ten members: Lois Haupert, Barbara Rohm, Lou Ann Bowers, Janet Bailey, Anita Bloom, Jean Bippus, Sally Carroll, Bill Johnson, Bob Fettinger, and Jack Hendricks.

Thanks a million, kids.

One Foot in Heaven

The Seniors of the class of 1951 selected as their play, "One Foot in Heaven." The play is narrated by Reverend Fraser Spence (Harold Hite). It takes place in the little town of Laketon, Iowa, in 1910.

The story is about Reverend William H. Spence (Phill Burchett), his wife (Ellie Schenkel), and his family—Hartzell (Jerry Parker), who wrote the book, and Eileen (Janet Bailey). It starts as the family is arriving at a new parsonage. The church is run by some very wealthy members of the church, Mrs. Sandow, a proud woman (Cindy Coyle), Mrs. Digby, a choir singer (Joann Hendricks), and Major Cooper, a man of sixty (Harvey Omstead). When Hartzell hits Georgie, Mrs. Digby's son (Bob Pinkerton), in the mouth, it causes quite a disturbance. When Louise (Mary Sue Stephen) finds out that Hartzell is going over to Letty's (Sue Ebert) house, she refuses to have anything to do with Hartzell. What she doesn't know is that Hartzell has promised Letty's mother that he won't tell anybody that he is helping Letty with geometry; so, he can't tell Louise. Doctor Romer (Keith Hart), a very practical man, became the first friend of the Spence's when everyone else was against them. Mrs. Jellison (Barbara Rohm) and Mrs. Cambridge (Frances Wood) just can't seem to get along with each other because they both seem to blame each other for so many things. Molly (Bessie Funk) is a manhater and claims she is going to be the first woman President. Maria (Cora Mullarky), a pretty Mexican girl, is faced with racial prejudice. Bishop Sherwood (Bill Phillips is a kind, soft spoken man; and he is the one who decides whether Reverend Spence stays in the church. Ronny (Jim Pinney), Molly's brother, is a good friend of Hartzell. When he tries to get Hartzell to join DeMolay, he gets in some trouble with Reverend Spence.

Of course the ones who took character (?) roles in the play weren't the only ones responsible for this accomplishment. It just couldn't have been done without the time and effort of Miss Zahn (Gerry) and Mr. Gerdes (Bruce).

We should also mention the work of our many committees: Organist—Gloria Enos; En-

Huntington High School

Drum Major

Don Holloway continued as drum major from last year, and he is doing the same fine job. Our band really did some high steppin' during the half of our football games.

Majorettes

For something special at our home games we can always depend on the Majorettes. They do a fine job and many times under very unfavorable conditions.

Band of "1951"

Delmar Weesner

Mr. Weesner did another fine job this year of giving us a band that participated in many activities, both school and outside. Of course the whole band worked hard for all the honors received, but it would have been difficult to do without Mr. Weesner.

The most important development in the band this year, at least from the standpoint of the band members, was the purchasing of new uniforms with the aid of the Band-Parents Association. The uniforms are steel gray and trimmed in red and black to carry out the school colors.

This year the band did not take any out-of-town trips, but was right on the job, as usual, at the home football and basketball games.

The band went into politics this year by marching and playing music for the Republican and Democratic rallies.

Band members participated in the District Solo and Ensemble Contest at Fort Wayne in February in which they made a fine showing; several placed in superior rating there, which made them eligible to go on to the State Contest held at Indianapolis in March. The students also placed high in this event.

Some of this year's activities were playing at Hiers Park for Halloween, and furnishing music for the arrival of Santa Claus and the Spring Opening down-town.

Since no organization can succeed without fine leadership, the Huntington High School Band owes its achievements to Delmar Weesner, the group's very capable director.

When the Choir Sang . . .

Mr. Slater

One of the important spokes in the wheel of our entire school program is Mr. Cloyde Slater. He does an excellent job of directing the choir and he also plays the organ or piano at special events. At almost a moment's notice he can work up a program suitable for any occasion. We couldn't get along without Mr. Slater at H. H. S.

Choir

The highlights of this year's program were the Christmas and Spring Concerts. The choir also made an outstanding contribution to the Revue, the Holy Week Services, and the Easter Sunrise Service. Aside from the regular group, many ensembles have been formed which appeared frequently throughout the year.

Sunshine Society

This year the "Sun Rays," under the leadership of Alice Kline, had a prosperous season. They gave a beautiful Thanksgiving program for the whole student body in the auditorium. The "guiding lights" elected were: President, Ann Bowers; Vice-President, Phyllis Krider; Recording Secretary, Anne Weesner; Corresponding Secretary, Rosemary Clipp; Treasurer, Jane Burris. Let's take a look at each section and see how each helped to make it prosperous.

S. S. S.

The S. S. S., sponsored by Emma Kline, is the morale-building part of the society. They gave a Christmas program and gifts of candy to the County Farm.

Craft Guild

The Craft Guild meets whenever possible under the leadership of Miss Zahn. Many fellows are wearing argyle socks which were one of the projects of this organization.

C. A. R. E.

C.A.R.E. is a fairly new organization sponsored by Miss Alice Kline. This year they sent shoes to Greece and helped a family of Displaced Persons. Later in the year they elected officers.

Gales

The Gales, under the leadership of Miss Cage, make those darling eggs with frilly bonnets. The proceeds from the sale of these are given to the Riley Fund for Children.

Mary White Guild

Mary White Guild, sponsored by Miss Weiford and Mrs. Porter, helped with the Easter programs, assisting Miss Cage. They also made the beautiful May baskets. Bessie Funk served as chairman of the group.

M. M. S.

The M. M. S., under the leadership of Miss Sees, is only open to Junior and Senior girls. The annual Sweetheart Dance was a huge success with many "oh's" and "ah's" uttered over the beautiful decorations. They also sponsor Peanut Week which is full of surprises and fun for everyone.

Big Sisters

The Big Sisters are to help the new Freshmen when they come to H. H. S. They help them to get acquainted with the school. The sponsor is Alice Kline. Her helpers are Nickie Schacht and Joyce Ahner.

Little Sisters

The Little Sisters are the Freshmen. Each little sister has a big sister to help her get acquainted the first few days.

Our Sweetheart Dance

Lovely music by Jimmy Steir and his orchestra floated out to greet the couples as they arrived at the annual Sweetheart Dance sponsored by the M. M. S. on February 17, 1951. The background was a silhouette of a dancing couple trimmed in silver. Hearts with the couple's names and small silhouettes decorated the poles. The traditional heart was broken by Ann Bowers, Sunshine president, and her escort, Jim Bonifas. The sponsor for the dance was Miss Mary Sees, and the chairman was Barbara Rohm.

Senior Hi-Y

The Hi-Y seeks to place foremost in the minds of the high school boys the ideals of true Christian character. One of its main functions is service to others.

The Mother-Son and Father-Son Banquets were two important events of the year. Bruce Gerdes is sponsor of the group whose officers this year were: Jerry Parker, President; Bob Stevens, Vice-President; Keith Hart, Secretary; Bill Phillips, Treasurer; and Bob Fettinger, Chaplain.

Junior Hi-Y

This organization was founded for the freshman and sophomore boys. Its creed and purpose is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character."

The officers for this year were: Dick Morris, President; Wayne Cozad, Vice-President; Doug Wilson, Chaplain. The co-sponsors were Robert Diffenbaugh and Phil Pittenger.

Senior Tri-Hi-Y

Senior Tri-Hi-Y, including junior and senior girls, is the sister organization to the Senior Hi-Y and has about the same purpose. We started the year with a hay ride in the fall, and during the Thanksgiving vacation we joined the Junior Tri-Hi-Y to sponsor the Anniversary Dance.

Mrs. O. K. Zeigler as our sponsor; Lois Haupert, President; Janet Bailey, Vice President; Jane Burris, Secretary; Pat Sims, Treasurer; and Eloise Bailey, Chaplain; led the club in a year of fun.

Junior Tri-Hi-Y

This organization has proved to be very important to Freshmen and Sophomores. Together with the Sr. Tri-Hi-Y another Sock Dance was held. They also had other activities. The officers elected were: Ann Paulen, President; Nancy Weinley, Vice-President; Roberta Dolby, Secretary; Delene Smith Chaplain; and Nancy Carey, Treasurer. Our club leader is Charlotte Rahn.

Senior Masque and Gavel

Hear ye! We have here a sensational organization composed of speakers, dramatists, and debaters. They always provide you with the best in entertainment.

Seriously, the group has really been busy this year. Plays, skits, and religious programs were given both for the school and other organizations. Each morning, the announcements were given by members of this club. Twenty of these students attended the Purdue Speech Conference in December. Many honors were attained by this group.

It is sponsored by Mrs. Patterson and is led by: Hal Lesh, President; Ann Bowers, Vice-president; and Sue Day, Secretary-treasurer.

Junior Masque and Gavel

This group is, more or less, just getting a good start in public speaking so as to do better in Senior Masque and Gavel. We have different committees for each meeting that put on a short skit or speeches. We really got it when it came to criticisms, but it helped us to correct ourselves.

We had a large group to represent us at the annual Alumni Banquet, which was very interesting.

There were forty-six members in the '51 group. Roberta Dolby directed us as president; with Dick Morris, vice-president; Joyce Ahner, secretary; and Mrs. Wallace Patterson, our sponsor.

SENIOR BOOSTER CLUB

Second row: Leuann Bowers, Janet Bailey, Lois Haupert, Bob Carter, Jane Burris, Mary Sue Stephan, Lily Minniear, Bob Pinkerton, Betty Schultz, Dorothea Lamb, Elaine Cheesman, Joanne Vickery.
Third row: Doyleen Cass, Cora Mullarky, Barbara Rehm, Jackie Lewis, Sue Ebert, Diane Schroeder, Madonna Cunningham, Hal Lesh, Gloria Enos, Joann Hendricks, Pat Sims, Helen Pratt.
Fourth row: Bonnie Young, Jean Riggle Rittenhouse, Ellie Schenkel, Lavera Wendel, Joyce Young, Bob Koehlinger, Dean Richardson, Paul Krieg, Patt Meese, Jean Ann Boyle.
Fifth row: Mr. Gerdes, Jim Bonifas, Ed Haines, Bob Murphy, Dick Glenn, Bob Bond, Bud Hunicutt, Carlos Huesca.

The Booster Club

I imagine none of you will ever forget the night you were initiated into the Booster Club. (How could you?) Everyone got his full quota (and then some) of lipstick, salt, garlic, and, might we add, "tasty dishes". Yes, it was an event to remember.

The officers elected for this year, John Cozad, President; Mark Guhl, Vice-President; Janet Greider, Secretary-Treasurer; and Bruce Gerdes, Sponsor.

The Club activities included—folding the programs for the football and basketball games, buying part of the shirts for the Cheering Block, and paying for the colored movie that was taken of the Cheering Block. In the fall, the members enjoyed a hamburger fry at the conservation club.

JUNIOR BOOSTER CLUB

Front row: Zan Poorman, Ann Blackburn, Phyllis Oden, Carol Buzzard, Norma Chattin, Peg Kramer, Shirley Weiger, Gloria McClure, Anita Bloom, Dora Pence, Marilyn Biehl, Margaret Herring, Delene Smith, and Sue Barnhisel.
Second row: Sue Day, Sally Carrol, Charlene Fruechtenicht, Phyllis Honemyer, Norma Stonebraker, Gloria McBride, Beverly Cargo, Carol Ade, Vontella Lange, Shirley Gressley, Rowena Minton, Nancy Dye, Jane Bell, Nickie Schacht.
Third row: Beverly Gressly, Nancy Stahl, Nancy Farnow, Shirley Schnitz, Joan Crooks, Janet Herzog, Sandra Welker, Sharon Young, Mary Brown, Patty Enos, Janet Johnson, Joan Barnhisel, Carol Mygrant, Sharon Altman, Carol Reed, Doris Warkentien, Freda Follis, Margaret Rudig, Kay Carrol.

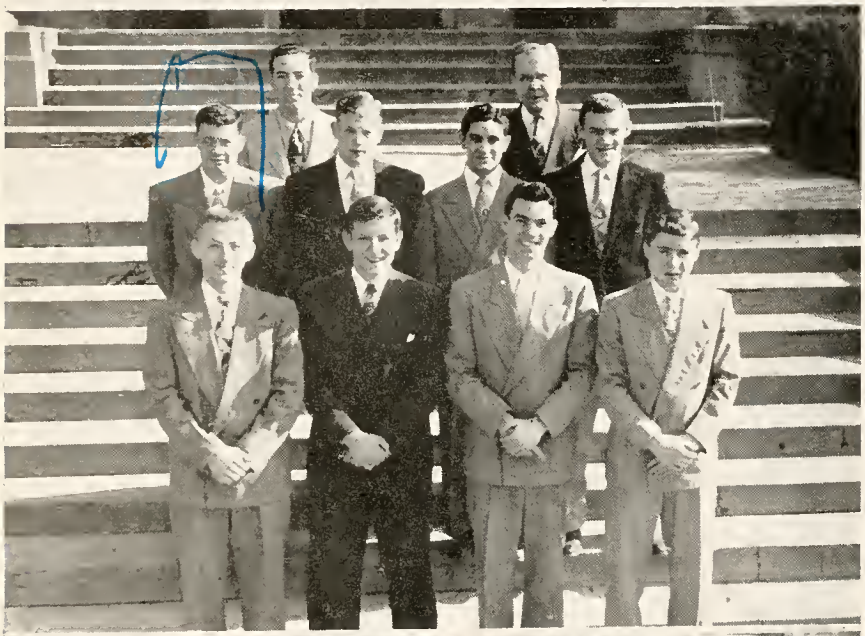
Student Council

Huntington High School can never be accused of not being democratic. Each of the home rooms elects a representative who attends all the meetings of his group. This group was organized to maintain good conduct in the halls and in the auditorium. The members of the Student Council under the direction of Mr. Johnson have done a wonderful job this year. The officers for the past year have been:

President, Douglas Hum; Vice President, Bob Bond; Secretary, Lois Haupert.



Junior Rotarians

Every month of the school year one Senior boy is chosen to be Junior Rotarian. He is picked according to civic interest, personality, manners, scholastic ability, and dependability. Mr. Lester Gordon sponsors this group of nine boys: September, Phill Burchett; October, Bob Bond; November, John Cozad; December, Bob Stevens; January, Hal Lesh; February, Bud Hunnicutt; March, Doug Hum; April, Jerry Parker; May, Carlos Huesca.

F. T. A.

The F. T. A. is a national organization sponsored indirectly by the National Education Association at Washington, D. C. This is the fourth year for the club here at Huntington High. The club meetings are held the first Monday of each school month for the study of material pertaining to the teaching profession. The officers for this year were: Bob Bond, President; Doris Warkentien, Vice-President; Frances Wood, Secretary; Doug Hum, Treasurer. The highlight of the year was the all day visit on the Ball State Teachers College campus.

Bug-ology Club

With Mr. Hummer and Mr. Ware as their sponsors, the Biology Club chose the following officers: John Cozad, President; Phill Burchett, Vice-President; Jean Bippus, Secretary; Jim Pinney, Treasurer.

Everyone had a swell time at the initiation of new members. Among other things the new microbe hunters were fed baby food; they had to crow like the Sacred Bird of Ibis; and they had to tell their secret love.

At their monthly meetings they had interesting lectures on subjects related to biology.

Radio Operators

Since the installation of our school radio, many students have been studying the technique of its operation. Out of the group that took the examination the following were given a license: Bob Walters, Hal Lesh, Jim Pinney, Marvin Phillips, Bill Chambers, Margaret Chambers, Phil McMann, Don Holloway, Wallace Brenton, Jane Powers, Dick Lee, Hugh Maxwell, Harvey Omstead, Tom Glenn, Mr. Diffenbaugh, and Mr. Day.

Actuariae

The purpose of this club is to organize the student library assistants, to assist in fulfilling plans for beautifying the library, and to render service to all the students.

This year the activities of this club were many and were ably led by the officers elected who were: President: Louann Bowers: Vice President, Patt Meese; Secretary-Treasurer, Jean Stell; and their sponsor, Mrs. Davis. Among the activities were the bake sale, Mother's Tea, hamburger fry, and the Book-of-the Mon'h Club. The many pretty posters and the Christmas tree in the library were in the hands of the Actuariae.

Senior Honor Society

The Senior Honor Society is composed of the top 15% of the Senior Class and the members are selected from a composite score of student ranking, faculty ranking, and scholarship. Those selected this year were: Hal Lesh, Janet Greider, Janet Bailey, Barbara Rohm, Ann Bowers, Joann Hendricks, Gloria Enos, Bessie Funk, Jean Saufley, Mary Sue Stephan, Jim Pinney, Cindy Coyle, Eleanor Schenkel, Jane Burris, Dick Glenn, Barbara Webber, and Cora Mullarky.

Junior Honor Society

The Junior Honor Society is composed of the top 5% of the Junior Class and the members are selected in the same way as those for the Senior Honor Society. Those selected for this year were: Phyllis Krider, Jean Bippus, Donald Holloway, Sue Jane Day, Duane Caley, and Donna Gorham.

K. B. F.

Kiwanis Builds Forever, better known as K. B. F. consists of the upper 5% of the Senior Class and is based entirely on scholarship. Those making K. B. F. in 1951 were: Janet Greider, Gloria Enos, Barbara Rohm, Hal Lesh, Janet Bailey, and Cindy Coyle.

Audio Visual

Do you like to go to room 211 and see those films? You do? I thought so. Do you know who makes it possible for us to see them? You don't? Well, the Audio Visual department does. This part of our school is headed by "Pop" Day, and it is he who gets the films for us and supplies the operators to show the films.

The Audio Visual department also supplies the films for the grade schools. The films we see are educational, and we should all get something out of them.

Woodshop Foremen

All the boys who become woodshop foremen must have a major in this department, have a "B" average, and have been an assistant at one time. They usually are Juniors or Seniors who are especially interested in woodwork. Mr. Burke has charge of this group.

Counseling

Lois Thompson, Norma Chattin, Nancy Carey and Diane Schroeder.

Book Renters

Attendance Help

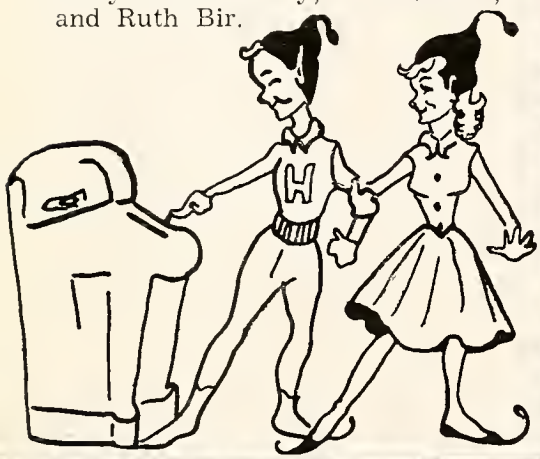
Back row: Tom Fahrnow, Darvin Haupert, Doug Hum.

The Place to go . . .

The Swing Inn

The Swing Inn, with Mamie and Ed Eunley, Miss Henry, and Murnie Zeigler as overseers, is one of the most popular places in town. Without it how would anybody get a date for Sunday night? The dues are only one dollar a year, which hardly pays for the time and pleasure we get out of it. The President this year was Jane Burris from H. H. S. Other members from H. H. S. are as follows: Pat Meese, Vice-President; Duane Caley, Secretary; Darvin Haupert; Sue Jane Day; Hal Lesh; Jean Ann Vernon; and John Cozad. From H. C. are: Tom Bolinger, Treasurer; Mary Jane McNulty; Dick Shores; and Ruth Bir.



The biggest Dance . . .

The Prom of 1950

We thought the Prom of 1950 was one of the most outstanding and one of the prettiest ever enjoyed by the students of H. H. S. The soft music of Jimmy Stier's orchestra and the atmosphere of the ball room expressed the theme of Hawaii. The orchids used at the banquet were flown direct from Hawaii.

Radio

"This is station WVSH, the Voice of the schools of Huntington with studios in Huntington High School." Oh, what a familiar sound in the studios of WVSH.

We are on the air every afternoon Monday through Friday. Among the Tape Recordings and Electrical Transcriptions, WVSH has many and varied "live programs." Among these are spelling bees for grade schools, dramatized stories, sport reviews and many others. Oh, yes, we can't forget all of the ball games we broadcast. WVSH brought every football and basketball game the Vikes played whether in town or out of town.

WVSH has gone ahead with the fine work it began last year. "Pop" Day and Mrs. Patterson are our two fine directors that make sure everything clicks just as it should.

What we will

We the Senior Class of Huntington High School in this blissful year of nineteen hundred fifty-one vacate the halls of H. H. S. for the road that leads to our uncertain future with our many talents, abilities, character, dignity, and ambitions. Never let it be said that we are greedy, because before going we want to bequeath you some of our overflowing good qualities.

Eloise Bailey wills her pencil brows to Ruth Connolly.

Janet Bailey wills her natural blond hair to Nicki Schacht.

Arden Ball leaves his "soiled" jokes to Dora Pence.

Roland Rogear wills his Bible to Miss Cage.

Bob Bond leaves Joyce Ahner. This we will have to see.

Jim Bonifas bequeaths his book, "How To Be A Student Manager and Still Do No Work," to Max Fordyce.

Lynn Borton gives a pack of fags to Gilbert Call. This should keep Gilbert quiet for a while.

Ann Bowers wills her long blond curls to Mr. Burke.

Louann Bowers leaves her ability to be late to the kids who get here too early.

Glenn Bowman gives his excess weight to Alan Knight.

Jean Ann Boyle bequeaths her collection of class rings to Nancy Dye.

Dave Brewer leaves Miss Weiford's sixth period study hall at 3:05 with a cigarette behind his ear.

Leonard Brickley leaves his quiet manner to Charlie Cutshall.

Willard Garretson bequeaths his motor bike to Lowell Richardson.

Carolyn Girvin leaves in a little blue Ford singing "Oh Johnnie."

Dick Glenn wills his catty remarks to Dale Ware.

Janet Greider and Betty Schultz leave to work for their wings. (Air Force, that is.)

Dick Cochran and Jerry Felts will wait to become nephews of Uncle Sam.

Jacilin Gressley leaves Beverley to take her place.

Mark Guhl wills his blushing complexion to Bruce Stewart.

Keith Hart and Joan Hendricks leave for Squire Kelly's office.

Lois Haupert bequeaths her Tri-Hi-Y president's gavel to Ann Paulen.

Carolyn Herzog and Dorothea Lamb leave for Beatty's.

Harold Hite gives his white dinner jacket back to Golden's.

Phyllis Hoch wills her crying ways to Jean Bippus.

Carl Holsworth leaves his quiet disposition to Hervey Weiford.

to the Underclassmen

Florence Holsworth leaves without a word.

John Horsley wills his paint brush ability to Miss Oyer.

Carlos Huesca and Helen Pratt leave for south of the border down Mexico way.

Doug Hum leaves his album of Eddie Arnold records to anyone crazy enough to listen to them.

Bud Hunicutt leaves to take over Bill's Shoe Repair. Don't work too hard.

Harry James takes his trumpet back to Betty Grable.

Carol Kissinger leaves Carol Kissinger to meet her favorite admirer.

Paul Kreig and Carl Melching wait for the next election. Carl will vote and Paul will pass out Democratic hand bills.

Rex Lange wills his grocery store to Dave Repp.

Lily Minniear bequeaths her big line to anyone dumb enough to listen.

Ronnie leaves his "Mittens" with Rowena.

Cora Mullarky, May Collins, Marjorie Smith, Barbara Weber, and Frances Wood leave for the altar.

Hal Lesh leaves Sue Day. Don't worry they have a rendezvous in 5 years.

Bob Murphy bequeaths his freckles to Tom Lancaster.

Dora Musselman, Madonna Cunningham, Donna Haneline, Diane Schroeder, Jean Stell, Lois Thompson, Lavera Wendell, leave the library with no one to do the work.

Doris Mygrant leaves her knowledge of governmental affairs, which she learned at Girl's State to Pat Enos.

Nancy Nicholson wills her ineptitude ways to Bob Cutshall.

Harvey Omstead bequeaths a giant size bottle of Hadacol to Norma Chattin.

Jerry leaves to "Park-her" on the Monastery Road.

Patty Patten and Carol Humbert bequeath their slogan, "Don't do today what you can put off until tomorrow" to Nancy Fahrnow and Sonia Schacht.

Marvin and Bill leave to head the Phillips Milk of Magnesia Company.

Bob Pinkerton wills his ability to act to next year's senior class.

Jim leaves for the bank to deposit his "Pinneys."

Dean Richardson bequeaths his intramural protests to Ronnie Harris.

Barbara Rohm wills her roving eye to Barbara Petrucelle.

Myrna Rouch leaves a "little" chair in the band room.

Gloria Enos leaves with a bottle of peroxide and returns with the bottle half empty and a lighter coiffure.

Jean Saufley wills her boyish bob to Mr. Johnson.

Sandra Schacht leaves her spit curls to Miss Ellis.

Peggy Taylor bequeaths her wild, robust ways to Sue Barnhisel.

Joanne Vickery leaves H. H. S. partyless.

Gene Votaw leaves to join "his" St. Louis Browns.

Bob Walters leaves without a fight.

Bonnie Young leaves to grow old.

Joyce Young wills her loftiness to Marilyn Biehl.

Hobart Munger leaves without a senior jacket. He tried.

Jean Riggle Rittenhouse came a Miss and leaves a Mrs.

Mary Sue Stephen leaves practicing "Oh, Molly."

We the undersigned, after many hours of serious thought and meditation, hope that we have fulfilled the dreams and desires of all underclassmen. We now depart with this one thought in mind, "Truth Can Stand Alone."

What We Will

We were walking along, minding our business, when out of an orange colored sky. Wham! Bam! An atomic blast! Suddenly we were flying through space down—down—into the great sea of unconsciousness. Then through a haze we distinguished the gates of the city of Utopia bearing the inscription, "Truth stands alone" and floating on a peaceful current we enter the city.

After we become accustomed to the light we are alarmed by two piercing eyes, following our movements. Oh! it's only Janet Bailey peeking shyly out at us from behind a seaweed.

A few waves away is the city hall, and who shall be going in but the new committee in charge of discovering how to talk without getting a mouthful of water. Heading this committee is Major Phil Burchett, ably assisted by "Parking" commissioner Bob Bond and other members of the board—John Horsley, Bob Walters, Rex Lange, and Carl Melching.

Hearing screams of delight we turn around just in time to see Helen Pratt throwing water lilies to Carlos Huesca, the great shark fighter. From another direction come screams of a mermaid in distress. It seems Lily Miniear is easing her fins, she must be coming out to see us.

Zoom! Something just whizzed by, what was it? It looked like Sparky Spath, Tom Casper, and Bob Carter racing in their Cadillac mesquitos with Bob Stahl, Henry Edwards, Harold Hite, and Maurice Karringer. Honestly, those old rattletraps are a menace to the waterways.

Picking up a seashell we are startled by the voices of Patty Patten, Carol Humbert, Pat Sims, and Ann Bowers discussing the coming marriages of Jean Riggle, Eloise Bailey, and Barbara Webber. Just as the conversation becomes interesting a sudden vibration hurls the seashell from our hands. There must have been a short in the hot air currents.

Continuing on our way we find Arden Ball, Glen Bowman, Dave Brewer, Leonard Brickley, Bob Walters, and Wilmer Burns repairing a crack in the ocean floor.

Then along comes a swift wave and deposits us on the Votaw's doorsteps. Louann graciously invites us in to watch the wavyvision. We see looming before us the face of Hobart Munger who announces that the next program will be broadcast from the Wet House. A deafening applause is heard and our new Democratic President, Hal Lesh, begins his speech on "The Evils of the Republican Party." Vice-President Paul Krieg staunchly defends the Republicans, but he is interrupted by a spectator who loudly proclaims her opinions. Carol Kissinger will you never learn? We do not hear the outcome of the debate as the wavyvision breaks down. Gene calls the Chambers Engineering Service and since Bill is busy he sends his best man, Bob Koehlinger, who quietly makes the necessary repairs. Bidding the Votaw's goodbye we journey on to Lois Haupert's Hat Shop. Standing outside are Betty (Clements) Foremen, May Collins, and Madonna Cunningham peering in at a new Haupert creation of the latest fish scale fabrics. Walking in we see Carol Smith modeling a grey choral rose hat before customers Florence Holsworth, Donna Haneline, Dora Musselman, and Peggy Taylor.

Resuming our sight seeing tour we enter Harveys Hadacol Haven and are greeted by proprietor Harvey Omstead. We deposit our hats with Carolyn Girvin and Bonnie Young who are gaily attired in new creations by the leading designer of the day, Cindy Coyle. We are just in time to hear Harry James and his Fish House Four featuring Creepy Hum and his guitar engaged in a lively rendition of "Soap in Your Eyes." Then Dick Glenn appears to introduce Jean Ann Boyle, Sue Ebert, Janet Greider, Carolyn Herzog, Jackie Lewis, Cora Mullarky, Sally Creager, and Barbara Rohm who entertained us with a song and dance routine, Taut I Taw an Octoputty Tat." We can hardly enjoy it, however, as a noisy bunch at the next table keep clapping loudly. Well, what do you know, it's Jerry Parker, Jimmie Pinney, Bob Stevens, and John Cozad. The curtain falls on the last act. Applause. There must have been an accident backstage. Yes, here come Dick Cochran, Jerry Felts, Bill Pyle, Ronald Mitten, and Willard Garretson to fix it up. Over in the corner Keith Hart, Bill Phillips, and Lynn Borton are trying to persuade Jerry Felts, Carl Holsworth, and Bud Hunnicutt to play some Canasta. Since nobody else would Frances Wood. Just as we are leaving we see Cheesy Murphy forcibly dismissing Mark Guhl who must have indulged in too much Hadacol.

On the next corner the weather man, Jim Bonifas, has posted the report for tomorrow. Humidity 100% with waves ranging up to 15 feet high.

We enter a nearby church just in time to hear a timely sermon by Reverend Roland Bogear. The choir, under the direction of Joann Hendricks sings soft c(h)oral music accompanied by Gloria Enos on the organ. Conspicuous among the members of the choir are our old friends Dean Richardson, Mary Sue Stephen, Joanne Vickery, Jacilin Gressley, Larry Cossairt, Jeannine Simon, Lavera Wendel, and Sue Ebert.

Leaving the church we wander into the next building. Why it must be the radio station for we hear the familiar sound of Sandy Schacht saying, "This is station WVFU, voice of the Fishes of Utopia, broadcasting on a frequency of 88.1 water-cycles with an antenna power of 10 waves. The next voice you hear will be that of Ellie Schenkel—Fsst—wang. Here we are on the corner of Aqua and Marine with your "Lady on the Street" program. Let's interview some girls. What are your names girls? Phyllis Hoch, Dorothea Lamb, Doris Mygrant, Gladys Sheckler, Peggy Taylor, and Lois Thompson. Hmm, those buoys John Horsley, Rex Lange, Carl Melching, Marvin Phillips, and Bob Pinkerton are certainly in a hurry. They must be going to the Atomicmobile races. Here come Doyleen Cass, Joyce Young, Myra Rouch, and Elaine Cheesman. Sorry folks but they can't stop to talk to us now. You know how busy these musicians are.

Oh, here comes the famous acrobatic team of Bessie Funk and Jean Saufley. My those Atomicmobile races must be good, nobody will stop and talk. Well, we'll just start looking at window displays. Now here's an interesting one, a picture of Jane Burris, the outstanding newspaperwoman and her proteges, Diane Schroeder, Betty Schultz, Marjorie Smith, Jean Stell, Nancy Nicholson, and Lois Thompson. I'm afraid our time is up for today. I'll switch you back to the studio. —Fisst—wang. "Lonesome I'm a real lonesome gal." Why it's Patty Meese, the Lonesome Gal of Utopia, murmuring romantically, "RHISLDKJGHDSL."

Leaving the station we pass Bob Fettinger's Studio and decide to drop in and see him. He welcomes us and shows us some of his paintings. Among them are replicas of old war scenes taken from the barbaric days when people still fought their fellow men.

This reminds us that we belong to those days and so, regretfully, we leave this tranquil city and return to a world which has not yet learned to live at peace. However, we leave with the knowledge of what this generation can do in achieving a unity of peoples, of nations, of all the world.

1950 Football Season

The 1950 Vikings' football season was a highly disappointing one. The Norsemen failed to win a single ball game; this was the first time since the early 1930's that a Huntington High School grid team went through a season without at least a tie or victory to its credit. It was just one of those lean years that every coach dreads but usually has sometime during his coaching career.

The Vikings were a young and undermanned outfit in '50. There were only eight seniors on the squad; five of these were regulars. Several of the games were close, and they could have been victories if the Norsemen would have made up their minds to play ball earlier in the games.

Bob Bond: although "P-P" missed the last three games because of an arm injury, he managed to make the second C. I. C. team. The rugged center failed to make the first team by only one vote. Bob was also elected co-captain by his teammates.

Wilmer Burns: this veteran guard wound up his varsity career with his second varsity letter and a record as an all out fighter for the Viking cause.

Dick Cochran: after a year of B-team duty, Dick was given the opportunity he needed to prove his true value to the team as a reserve guard or tackle.

Jerry Felts: although he gave up the grid sport his junior year, Jerry came back to play the left half back position in fine style. He was the fastest Norse back.

Carlos Huesca: the fiery little Mexican proved great value to the team as a defensive wingman. "The Bullfighter" stopped many a potential end sweep.

Doug Hum: the greatest athlete on the team led the ends in passes completed, this was the "Creeper's" specialty. He also did the team's punting.

Mark Guhl: the "Killer" turned in herculean performances at the left guard. This is evidenced by the co-captain's selection to the C. I. C. third team. Mark will be sorely missed.

Harvey Omstead: "Hadacol" came along rapidly for only having one previous year of football experience. He was a reserve guard and added much pepper to the Vikings.

Senior Managers: Jom Bonifas, Dick Glenn, and Bob Murphy. Although these three took a continual abusing from both coaches and players about being lazy and shiftless, they will be missed next year. Their duties are numerous and important to the running of a well organized team.

Those hard working, energetic football student managers are Bob Cutshall, Max Fordyce, Jim Bonifas, Bob Murphy, and Dick Glenn.

Our snappy, capable Viking yell leaders for 1951 were: Nancy Carey, Dean Richardson, and Lily Minniear.

Sept. 8—Marion Giants

The Marion Giants came to Kriegbaum field with revenge in their hearts, having lost to the Norsemen the two previous years. In the first half the Vikes recovered three Marion fumbles in enemy territory, but each time Huntington failed to capitalize on the breaks. These were the only scoring threats of the Vikings. The Giants recovered a Huntington fumble on the midfield stripe at the start of the third and scored five plays later; the point after the touchdown was missed. The opponents' final touchdown came minutes later when a bad punt was returned to the midfield stripe. Weber then scampered for paydirt around right end. The conversion was good and that made the score 13 to 0. Bob Bond stood out in the line, and Ronnie Wiest did a terrific job of running for the Norse.

September 15—Hartford City Airedales

The Vikings journeyed to Hartford City for their Central Indiana Conference opener. The powerful Airedales overwhelmed the Vikes by the score of 57 to 0. The Airedale Center scooped up a Huntington fumble on the first play from scrimmage and raced 28 yards for a T.D. A few minutes later the real blow of the game came for the Vikes when their hard charging fullback, Ronnie Weist, was hurt. He received a cleat wound above the left eye and was forced to retire from the fame. The spirit of the team immediately dropped, and it was evident in their play. Hartford City turned three Huntington fumbles, an intercepted pass, and a bad Viking punt into five touchdowns and two conversions for a 32 to 0 lead at the end of the first fifteen minutes of play. The hosts scored at will after that and the Vikings never threatened, getting only three first downs against the outcharging Airedale line.

Sept. 22—Wabash Apaches

Coach William's Vikings played inspired ball against their arch rivals, the Apaches, from Wabash. The tackling and blocking for Huntington showed marked improvement and for three quarters the Vikes battled the heavier Wabash team on nearly even terms. The Norse scored their first touchtown of the year when Ronnie Weist recovered a Wabash fumble on the opponents' one-yard line and went over for the score two plays later. At the beginning of the second quarter, the Vikes put up a gallant goal line stand which repulsed a 68 yard Wabash march. Midway in this period, the Apaches scored on a 23 yard end sweep. The conversion was good; this put Wabash into the lead, which they never relinquished. They ran the score to 25 to 6, helped by some mental lapses and costly Huntington penalties.

Sept. 29—Warsaw Tigers

Warsaw came to Kriegbaum field and picked up their third victory in four starts at the expense of our winless Vikings. Three thousand fans witnessed the 26 to 0 beating. Four things led to the Vikings' downfall: spotty blocking and tackling compared with the vicious brand shown at times the week

Freshmen Football

The 1950 frosh gridders, although not having too successful a season in the win-loss department, were a high scoring group that developed many stars who will no doubt move into the public limelight when they perform for the varsity team this year. This year's aggregation was under the usual careful direction of all three coaches—Williams, Naab, and Perry. Several of the boys were good enough to earn minor letters, indicative of their abilities.

before, several mental lapses, four fumbles, and five intercepted passes. Huntington's only sustained drive of the game was made at the close of the first quarter and the opening minutes of the second. It carried from the Viking 40 to the Warsaw 14 where the visitors took over on first downs. Jerry Felts turned in the best run of the evening for the Norsemen, picking up 46 yards around his own right end. His interference fell behind, however, and he was nailed by a side tackle.

Oct. 6—Elwood Panthers

If the Huntington Vikings could have played the whole game as they played the third quarter against Elwood, they might have won their first game, instead of going down to their fifth straight defeat by the score of 32 to 6. The visitors did all their scoring in the second and fourth quarters, getting 18 and 12 points respectively in those periods. In the third Bill Bond, Viking quarterback, crossed up the Elwood defense with a four yard third down T.D. pass to Right End Doug Hum. Shortly after this, Bronko Weist snatched the Elwood ball out of the air and raced to the goal line. The officials, however, ruled the ball dead and gave it back to the Panthers. Instead of giving the Norsemen another six points, it paved the way for two more Elwood tallies.

Oct. 13—Fort Wayne Central

The Vikings traveled to Fort Wayne to play the Central Tigers at South Side field. The game was costly as Bob Bond and Boyd Scarborough, starting center and substitute, were injured and lost for the season. Boyd suffered a cracked bone in the right ankle, while Bob suffered a muscle injury in the right arm. The Vikes lost to the host, Central, 33 to 6, mostly because of the Tigers' runners working their way out of traps set by the Viking defense. Overholt, Central quarterback, turned in a classy job as a field general.

Oct. 21—Fort Wayne South Side

South Side's Green Archers scored 20 points in the first quarter at the South Side stadium and then went on to defeat the invading Huntington Vikings 40 to 7. The defeat was the seventh straight for the winless Norsemen. The lone touchdown for Huntington came in the fourth quarter, the play covering about 74 yards with Left End Haines scampering the last 50 after taking a lateral from Right End Doug Hum. Four boys handled the ball on the scoring play. Dick Lintner, the quarterback, tossed a lateral to Jerry Felts who passed to Hum on the 50. Doug was hit when he caught the ball and handed it off to Haines who rushed to pay-dirt. Rex Dolby got the conversion for the Vikings' seventh point. This was the first point-after touchdown made by the Vikes this season.

Oct 25—Plymouth Rockies

Plymouth came to Huntington determined to win this vital ball game for themselves. They succeeded in doing so, whipping our Vikings 46 to 0. This earned them a tie with the Hartford City Airedales for the Central Indiana Conference football championship. The Rockies tallied 13 points in each of the first three quarters and added seven in the fourth to rack up its seventh win in eight starts, keeping the Vikings between their own goal line and the opponents 45 throughout the contest. Dave Scheetz, Plymouth's junior quarterback, electrified the fans by taking the opening kickoff 84 yards for a touchdown to knock the Norsemen out of the ball game. In the fourth period Coach Bill Williams sent in his freshmen team, and they displayed more pepper and scrap than the varsity.

Nov. 3—Peru Tigers

A series of bad breaks at the outset of the third quarter led to two quick Peru touchdowns and the Tigers then went on to defeat the Vikings 34 to 13 at Kriegbaum Field after leading 13 to 6 at the intermission. The loss was the ninth in a row for the Norsemen, ending their winless season. It was a typical Peru-Huntington football night. A cold wind and intermittent rains held the crowd to some 1,000 spectators. Peru scored the first time to get its hands on the ball; they scored again on the first play of the second period too. The Vikings then engineered an 80-yard drive that ended with Jerry Felts going the final eight for a touchdown An intercepted pass and two fumbles led to last Bengal touchdowns in the third and fourth periods. A 20-yard pass from Weist to Bond set up the final Norse T.D.; it gave the Vikes a first down on the Peru 18. Bond got 10 on a quarterback sneak, and then Beemler crashed the final eight to a touchdown. Weist bucked for the extra point.

Huntington 40 Lancaster 44

The Vikes got off to a slow start against the Lancers and trailed 11 to 1 at the end of 4 minutes, but came back to trail 24-18 at the half. The Vikings rallied again and tied the game at 40-40. Lancaster won though, 44-40, having the advantage of playing 4 games before this one.

Huntington 61 Wabash 62

The Vikings trailed by a large margin most of the first half, but rallied to trail by only 9 points at the half. With the fans cheering them on they forged into the lead 59-58. After trading free throws, Wabash hit a basket with 7 seconds to go to win 62-61.

Huntington 45 Warsaw 54

The Norsemen lead at the end of a close first half was 27-26. But Warsaw outscored the Vikes 18-8 in the third quarter and went on to win 54-45. The Vikings missed over 20 free throws which cost them the game. Lintner led the Vikes with 10, while Whitey Bell hit 15 for the Tigers.

Huntington 56 Rochester 34

The Vikes won their first game of the year after dropping 3 in a row. The Vikes' defense was great in the first half, and they took a 25-14 lead. They pulled away to 42-21 at three quarters and coasted to a 56-34 win. Doug Hum poured through 22 points to lead the Norsemen.

Huntington 61 Peru 67

In a game of numerous fouls the Vikings went into a 17-15 first quarter lead. Still trailing only 35-31 at half, the Vikes lost out in the third quarter as Peru pulled to a 55-42 lead. The Vikes came back, but lost 67-61. Hum, Bond and Lintner all scored in double figures for the Vikes while Rowe got 22 and Toy 20 for Peru.

Huntington 46 Alexander 54

Alexander broke a 30 game losing streak in this game. Alexandria was inspired and outscored the Vikes in every quarter to win 54-46. Boke paced Alexandria with 22 while Lintner got 16 for the Vikes.

Huntington 50 Muncie Burris 57

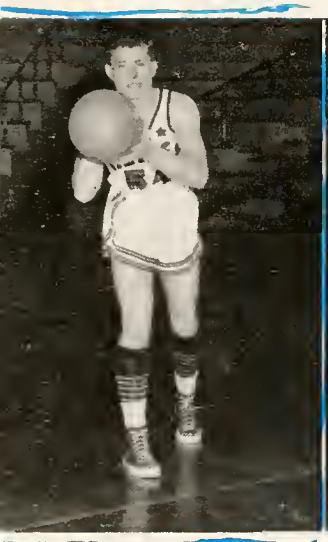
The hot shooting of Warren Beebe broke the Vikings' back in this one. Beebe poured through 24 points to stop the Vikings' rally. Burris had a lead of 19-6 and 30-16 before the Vikings came back to make it 50-50, but Burris pulled away to win 57-50. Rog Handwork got 12 points to pace the Vikes.

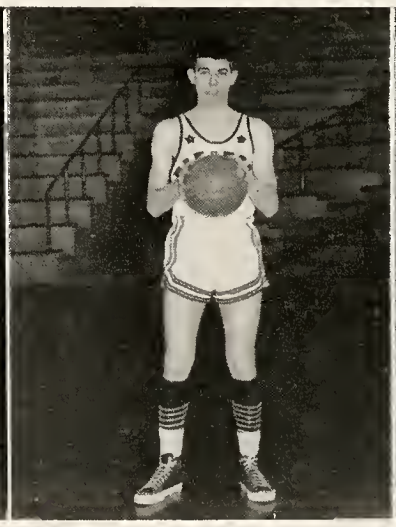
Bob Bond's cat-like defense work and ball handling abilities netted him a lot of playing time for the men of Williams. He was elected honorary co-captain by his teammates.

Jim Bonifas returned from a broken leg of the previous season to become a capable fill-in performer at center. The tall pivot-man grabbed off many valuable rebounds and was a great pepper man.

John Cozad contributed much to the Viking baseball department with his steady work on the back line, filling in at the guard position.

Dick Glenn came off the bench in mid-January to earn a starting forward berth for the rest of the season. The lanky senior relied on his easy one-handed push shots to rack up needed Viking digits.





Doug Hum was a hardwood ace that most Norsemen opponents failed to handle. "Creepy" wound up two years of variety basketball by being named to the third C.I.C. basketball team and he was elected honorary co-captain by his mates.

Bud Hunnicutt, gallopin' forward, always gave his best when called upon to perform. The scrappy senior finished out a two year variety career by being named on the all-sectional team on his great two-game performances.

Avid fans of the Vikings were hard working student managers, Bob Murphy and Mark Guhl, whose duties were both important and innumerable.

Huntington 33 Logansport 46

The Vikes had their worst half of the year and could only muster 5 points in the first half, and trailed 29-5. The Vikes out played the Berries in the second half with Bud Hunnicutt leading the way. He led the Vikes with 8. Broodbeek got 14 for Logansport.

Huntington 57 Rochester 46

The Vikes defeated the Zebras for the second time this year and these accounted for both of their wins. The Norsemen broke the game open in the third quarter with 18 points and coasted to the win. Doug Hum got 16 to lead the Vikings.

Huntington 40 Fort Wayne Central 57

The Vikes looked tremendous in the first half and led 24-22. But Central, led by Johnny Overholt, who rang up 20 points, outscored the Vikes in the second half 35-16, and won 57-40. Hum led the Norsemen with 11 points.

Huntington 42 Hartford City 55

The Vikings got 22 points in the third quarter but only got 20 the rest of the game.

Second row—Pat Boyle, Gene Carrol, Blayne Roebrook, Harry Brebaugh, Don Hum, Paul Hoffman, Nick Spentzos.

The Scyldings of the 1950-51 season played a full schedule of eighteen games. Coach Oscar Naab's boys wound up the year with a nine won and nine lost record.

The future Vikings scored 579 points during the past season, but their opponents tallied 589. They averaged 31.6 points per game. The opposition averaged 32.7 points per game.

This year's second-team was a young one. Four juniors, nine sophomores and nine freshmen earned minor letters for their participation in the sport.

The 1950-51 edition of the Huntington freshman basketball team started out strong, winning their first four games, and then tapering off to finish the season with a respectable eight won and five lost campaign.

Under the tutelage of Dangerous Dan Perry, the "Greenies" tallied 472 points, while their opponents scored 356. They averaged 36.6 points per game and held their opponents to 27.3 points per game average.

Nine of the Freshmen were good enough to finish the season out with the Scyldings while Roger Handwork played very capably as a Viking starting center.

First row—Brook Heck, Dick Putt, Tom Farberly, Dave Winkleman, Pudge Stringfellow, Gene Kauffman, Lowell Thorn, Larry Gilmer, mgr.

Intermural Basketball

Eighty boys took part in the intramural program this year. Intramural bronze medals were awarded to members of the winning teams in both leagues.

The National League, comprised of junior and senior boys, was won by the Brownies, captained by Dick Weyler and Hervey Weiford. Other team members were W. Garretson, D. Fry, Ed Shenefield, J. Burkhart, and T. Farber.

The American League champions were the Trojans captained by B. Cutshall and J. Lind. The remainder of the squad included J. Walknetz, B. Hawk, C. Becker, B. Raber, and J. Long.

All-Star teams of 12 men each were picked from the two leagues to compete as preliminaries to the annual game between the graduating varsity men and the future Vikings.

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association had quite an active year with the volleyball and archery tournaments, skating parties and many other activities. The highlights of the year were the trip to Indianapolis to the Sonia Henie Ice Revue and the annual Mother-Daughter banquet held in February.

Plaque winners this year were Ellie Schenkel, Lavera Wendell, Jean Saufley, Patt Meese, and Lois Haupert.

Ellie Schenkel, President; Jean Saufley, Vice-President; Carol Chalmers, Secretary; Patt Meese, Treasurer, were the officers who so efficiently ran our organization and Miss Ruth Luther was sponsor.

Dear Diary

SEPTEMBER

Tues., Sept. 5—Look at all the happy faces! I just know everyone is overjoyous cause the halls of H. H. S. are booming again. I love to joke! Looks like we double up on lockers. Due to the massive number of greenies, seniors are obliged to give up one or two.

Wed., Sept. 6—Book rentals (and assignment) I could have sworn I had five dollars when I left home. Thanks for leaving me two cents, now I can splurge.

Thurs., Sept. 7—In order to keep us under their wings it is necessary that we fill out enrollment cards.

Fri., Sept. 8—Pep session! What for? Didn't I tell you we play Marion tonight? Must be the rainy weather! we lost 13 to 0. The Swing Inn helped pep everyone up. Oh those colors! Where are my sunglasses?

Mon., Sept. 11—Senior Masque and Gavel started out by everyone recalling the summer memories. Sounds like (Sen.) Lesh had quite a political summer.

Tues., Sept 12—Election day for the senior class. Meet our new president—Phill Burchett.

Wed., Sept. 13—More meetings this week. Student Council elected "Creepy" president. Oh how does my hair look? This picture goes in the paper. New seats in the auditorium. Darn I'm a 3½ student—I guess I never will get an honored seat. How can they do this? The freshmen had medical exams and made us stay in class 15 min. longer.

Thurs., Sept. 14—I knew this was due. Permanent enrollment. Have a heart, I only have one arm! I like these kind of classes, no teacher!

Fri., Sept. 15—Another week just zooms around the corner. Vikes journeyed to Hartford City, final score—H. C.-57 us 0. Perry was real sweet today, no health and safety test as was planned.

Mon., Sept. 18—What an easy day, shows in two classes. Jr. Tri-Hi-Ys get together tonight.

Tues., Sept. 19—Nothing happened. Oh wait, G. A. A. officers had a brief meeting. Yes, nothing happened today.

Wed., Sept. 20—Oh to be with the rest going to Chicago. These classes are getting longer.

Thurs., Sept. 21—"Don't know why there's no sun in the sky," let's change this to "Blue Thursday."

Fri., Sept. 22—Green Day! Need I say more? Oh I just love to play with kittens in study hall. Don't put him out he's so c-u-t-e. Wabash played Vikes. I'm sure the score board's wrong it says—they-25 we-6. Here's good news. Gene Stephen just told me the B team beat Wabash 24-14.

Mon., Sept. 25—Another Monday and another Masque and Gavel meeting.

Tues., Sept. 26—If I left the space blank it would explain the day perfectly.

Wed., Sept. 27—I knew they couldn't all be like yesterday. The usual Wed. morning auditorium program. Formal initiation of freshmen into S. S. S. I'd never miss such a beautiful event.

Thurs., Sept. 28—Oh we couldn't have two days of the same type in the same week. It's true!

Fri., Sept. 29—All those athletically inclined meet in the auditorium at 11:00 (girls that is). Pep session at 4:00 for the Warsaw game. (Keep this under the cover Warsaw 26 Huntington 0). School paper came out. Quick give me the gossip column!

OCTOBER

Mon., Oct. 2—A new month, a new week and it sounds like we need a new sound system.

Tues., Oct. 3—Senior check list on bulletin board. Gee, whiz, I thought I was going to graduate, guess I better check with Betty. Cheerio!

17 West Market St. Huntington, Ind.

Wed., Oct. 4—Oh boy a day of relaxation while the teachers see what make our factories tick.

Thurs., Oct. 5—The Bugs and Bees Club meets today (Biology Club meets at 11:00).

Mon., Oct. 16—No game no meetings, no nothing. Looks like I'll have to stay in tonight—no excuse!

Tues., Oct. 17—This must be May! I think somebody stuck an extra month on the calendar! time sure going slow.

Wed., Oct. 18—Quick give me a board on a book! Something hard! Report Cards come out today. Wednesday never was my lucky day.

Thurs., Oct 19—Bang! Boom! Crash! How do they expect me to concentrate on Bugs Bunny! Seniors are having their sound system installed.

Fri., Oct. 20—This is the first time I ever saw a Friday come and nothing to do. Guess I'll give the Swing Inn a thrill—by not going down.

Sat., Oct. 21—For a minute I thought we were going 6 days but I see this is reserved for the South Side score, Archers 40 Vikes-uh —well—er—7.

Mon., Oct. 23—Auditorium program. The puppets performed with "Beauty and the Beast."

Tues., Oct. 24—Here's the break I've been waiting for—Historical exhibit. It says here if you lose your wife just use the handy lost and found section. Ringing of the Freedom bell wakened me at 11:00. Hope Miss Wilson didn't see me.

Wed., Oct. 25—This looks sad. Plymouth 40 Vikes 0. Come on Vikes, put us on top.

Thurs., and Fri., Oct. 26 and 27—Vacation! Teachers decided to meet to figure out some way to take care of this mean generation.

Sun., Oct. 29—This day is reserved in memory of Eddie Foster.

Mon., Oct. 30—Dale's right when he says the Monday's are blue—just look at the sky!

Tues., Oct. 31—Boo! Did I skeer ya? It's Halloween! We got out at 2:45 to join the parade.

NOVEMBER

Wed., Nov. 1—Thanks for reviving me, November. I got awfully tired of writing October. Sr. Tri-Hi-Y made plans for a hayride.

Thurs., Nov. 2—Brush—brush—step, get all limbered up. Dance practice starts soon. Are my feet tired! Senior's walked all over town telling people about our paper drive.

Fri., Nov. 3—What's this? "Seniors sign your name like you want it on your diploma." Hurray! I'm graduating after all (maybe). Peru ended our football season and also us. Peru 34; us 13.

Mon., Nov. 6—Monday nite, that means Jr. Tri-Hi-Y.

Tues., Nov. 7—Got out at noon because of election day. Who did you vote for? O.K., so it's a secret.

Wed., Nov 8—Auditorium program, group singing.

Thurs., Nov. 9—Here's another Thurs. As usual nothing happened today.

Fri., Nov. 10—Great! I do get to sit in the center section. I moved to Zahn's homeroom.

Mon., Nov. 13—No Masque and Gavel, no Tri-Hi-Y, another blue Monday.

Tues., Nov. 14—Booster Club party. Sloppy Joes! That's what we had to eat of course.

Wed., Nov. 15—Our great politician Hal gave a speech to the student body. Such poise!

Thurs., Nov. 16—Another trip to the auditorium. General Electric gave a demonstration. Everyone was all lit up (by the flourence light of course). May I present Miss Coyle and Mr. Lesh, the two most likely to succeed. At what?

Fri., Nov. 17—I'm just going to pack a lunch and stay in the auditorium. The Greswald's sang. Tha—tha—that's all folks! No game; guess I'll stay in tonight. Ha! Surprise!

Mon., Nov. 20—First announcement was given over the new sound system. No wonder I could hear so well.

Tues., Nov. 21—Biology Club voted on their new little bugs today. No offense, new member.

Wed., Nov. 22—Lot's happened today. Jr. Meeting at 11:25. I forgot I was a senior. Pep session at 3:40. This is our first basketball game. This is the score—Lancaster 44, Huntington 40. Oh well, there are many more games. No school tomorrow. Don't eat too much. If you do, just call on Hadacol.

Fri., Nov. 24—Hi! I'm back again. Vikes played Wabash. Need I mention the score? Alright, 62-61. Need I say who won? Alright, Wabash.

Sat., Nov. 25—In case anyone's interested, Purdue beat Indiana. Oh, you don't care? Well I do, and the only way to remember it is to keep it in a diary.

Mon., Nov. 27—Did it ever snow over the week-end. I thought maybe I couldn't find the school but—here I am. Got out at 3:30. I vote to have more teachers' meetings.

Tues., Nov. 28—Oh! Oh! Booster Club initiation is near. The committee was chosen today. Ain't love grand? I hope Miss Wilson doesn't catch Marilyn Biehl and Bob Ruble making eyes at each other.

Wed., Nov. 29—Hi-Y meeting. Well, that's the first one of those I've seen.

Thurs., Nov. 30—No! no! It can't be true! The dullness always falls on a Thursday.

DECEMBER

Fri., Dec. 1—Purdue Speech Conference. Have fun, kids? I say there, ol chap, we beat Rochester 56 to 34. (Bigger please).

Mon., Dec. 4—Booster Club prepared for the initiation by having the best cooks make fudge. Guess that counts me out.

Tues., Dec. 5—Ouch! Oh no! Stop please! It's here! Booster Club initiation.

Wed., Dec. 6—Almost everyone seems to have survived the punishment of being a Booster except—Niki Schacht thinks she's an Indian.

Thurs., Dec. 7—Remember Pearl Harbor.

Fri., Dec. 8—Do I look sad? My ship left port yesterday. Got beat by Peru 67-61. The muscle girls (G. A. A.) took a trip to Sonja Henie.

Mon., Dec. 11—Jr. Masque and Gavel at 4:00, and it's mother(sr.) at 7:15.

Tues., Dec. 12—Volleyball practice. Patty, what will Miss Luther think if you don't go out? How can we win?

Wed., Dec. 13—Stores stay open today. Have you written Santa Claus?

Thurs., Dec. 14—Biology Club initiation. It was about as bad as Booster Club. Then for the brighter side, we had the Choir Concert.

Fri., Dec. 15—All I can say is—COME ON VIKES! Alexandria beat us 54 to 46.

Mon., Dec. 18—Wish the end of the week would come. I'm dying to peek at my presents. Just gotta have a little time.

Tues., Dec. 19—Guess the pep session didn't bring too much luck, Muncie Burris beat us—50-57.

Wed., Dec. 20—Out again. That is if 60% buy tickets to the grade school tourney. Guess I'll go down and boost my alma mater.

Thurs., Dec. 21—The end has come! (You're supposed to say that very dramatically.) Christmas program at 2:00. Merry Christmas, everyone. See you next year.

Fri., Dec. 22—Played Logansport. What a Christmas present. Final score 33-46. Oh well, better luck next year.

JANUARY

Mon., Jan. 1—Happy New Year, and how do you feel today? I never thought I'd like the tourney, but here I am brighter than . . . a . . . ah . . . er, sorry I just dozed off.

Tues., Jan. 2—Played Hartford City and since this isn't on school time I refuse to tell the score.

Mon., Jan. 8—All good days come to an end sometime. Students are trudging into the portals of H. H. S. with drawn faces and landed back to soon begin and end the second semester.

Tues., Jan. 9—Hooray for the Vikes! Let's give them a cheer for the wonderful game against Marion. Too bad we couldn't have talked them out of another point. 44-45.

Wed., Jan. 10—Mr. Stephan told the student body how great the need was for a cafeteria so we could all eat and be happy.

Thurs., Jan. 11—Brush—brush—step. Oh my feet! Dance practice at 6:30.

Fri., Jan. 12—Oh what a riot! Look out, Abe, you're losing your balance! Looks like Hobart got rid of his jacket—but quick! South Side Archers put an arrow right through the Vikes. This is on the side—hadn't you heard I joined the Navy—sure, leave for Great Lakes tomorrow.

Mon., Jan. 15—Back to the old grind. Oh yes, it snowed over the week-end, what a picture for a composition.

Tues., Jan. 16—Seniors signed up for next semester. One more, seniors, so make it your best.

Wed., Jan. 17—Juniors' turn today.

Tues., Jan. 18—This sure a blank day, but I can't leave the space blank.

Fri., Jan. 19—Played Elwood tonight. That's enough. You can't get another word out of me.

Mon., Jan. 22—Rented books today. Mad scramble to see who can get to class first. (Who am I kidding?)

Tues., Jan. 23—Full time today, oh, no! Dance practice at 5:00, 5:30, and 6:00. Say this could be confusing! Good way to lose weight, no time for food.

Wed., Jan. 24—This sounds familiar. Dance practice at 5:00, 6:00, and 7:00. At least I can eat tonight! Ha! what do I mean tonight? Morrow, what are you hiding in the study hall table drawer? Could it be Tom Farhnow's book?

Thurs., Jan. 25—No dance practice. Hooray! I'll rest my weary feet.

Fri., Jan. 26—Ft. Wayne Central ran over the Vikes 62-47, but our Sea Rovers always play their best. We seem to have roaming boys in our school. Florida's a nice state, boys, but not during school.

Mon., Jan. 29—Dance practice again, or as usual. Say would someone please tell me who's going to write the prophecy?

Tues., Jan. 30—Say this is a new style—what is it, a come as you are—oh I see it's "greenie day."

Wed., Jan. 31—The revue is really shaping up nice. Some girls went up for the dance choruses' necessities. Golly, where are my ear muffs? It's 20° below, but someplace in the U. S. it was 50° below.

FEBRUARY

Thurs., Feb. 1—Say this is February! How about that! They turned the month right under my nose.

Fri., Feb. 2—Guess I'll listen to the Elwood game over Huntington's overgrown sound system—WVSH.

Mon., Feb. 5—Dress rehearsal. Everyone looked great!

Tues., Feb. 6—The little tots seemed to enjoy the Revue. Let's hope the adults do too. E. Chicago Washington came down to visit the Vikes. I didn't think it was very nice of them to leave with a score of 63-53.

Wed., Feb. 7—Opening nite always is exciting. Crowning of the Queen by Hal and his-queen-Susie. Congratulations, Sue.

Thurs., Feb. 8—Revue again. Are the crowds ever great.

Fri., Feb. 9—This is sad, the last nite, last year for seniors and gosh neds, where's Mickey? I feel silly in this clown suit.

Sat., Feb. 10—Another off the record. Vikes beat Richmond. Wouldn't you know I'd lose the score when we win.

Mon., Feb. 12—Blue Monday, nothing to say, so I'll close for today.

Tues., Feb. 13—Excitement again. Senior play tryouts at 4:00. "One Foot in Heaven" is the play.

Wed., Feb. 14—Happy Valentine's Day.

Thurs., Feb. 15—I can see where I'll spend my time, learning lines.

Fri., Feb. 16—Hooray! Give a cheer! Vikes beat Plymouth! Nice going, fellows.

Sat., Feb. 17—I'll just sneak this in here. Sweetheart Dance. Grab your Sweetie, and let's go through the heart.

Mon., Feb. 19—Whatcha got in your coat, Fim?

Tues., Feb. 20—Play practice. Say, I could learn to like this!

Wed., Feb. 21—Sectional time. Are you going to the game? Warren won the first. I didn't stay any longer.

Thurs., Feb. 22—School out! Let's have more of these Sectionals.

Fri., Feb. 23—Vikes beat Huntington Township, 33-66. Hooray! Keep it up. (Several hours later) . . . Shed tears. Vikes lost to Lancaster. We've got next year to make up for it. On to the State in 52.

Sat., Feb. 24—Union came through. All kinds of upsets in this game.

Mon., Feb. 26—The start of a new week. Sr. Masque and Gavel tonight.

Tues., Feb. 27—Play practice at 7:00. Ah my aching feet!

Wed., Feb. 28—Another film. Say this is a pretty good series.

MARCH

Thurs., March 1—Oh what a wonderful spring day! Just the kind of weather to play . . . come now, no such thoughts. Keith, what happened to your car? And who was the eye witness? . . . You guessed her, Chester!

Fri., March 2—Mr. Vogel came today. Dear me, how many invitations shall I order? That's easy, how many presents do I want?

Sat., March 3—Did you hear the regional? Union lost. Golly neds, I thought for sure they had it!

Mon., March 5—No play practice, no Masque and Gavel, no Tri-Hi-Y; golly, what can I do tonight?

Tues., March 6—Play practice, as usual.

Wed., March 7—Again, again, and again . . . play practice that is . . . and, Miss Coyle, how do you abide with your time after practice.

Thurs. March 8—Oh, Miss Zahn, your new shoes are-er-ah charming. Do you mean to truthfully say we have to wear those? And have you seen the dresses?

Fri., March 9—Imagine play practice on a Friday night. Gee whiz and I had so planned on staying in and studying. Surely you know me better than that. Someone could make a mint if they'd write a book on how to sleep at a slumber party. Right, Annie?

Mon., March 12—Can't you guess what goes on? That's right! Sr. Masque and Gavel.

Tues., March 13 — Costumes are coming. Someone tell me all about the little man at Warsaw.

Wed., March 14—The fifth in a series of six was today. Film of course. Did you know three-fourths of the school has colds. Those are the true facts. No play practice—Holy Week film. Say, Burchett, what was the name of that film?

Thurs., March 15—Jiulfim Boulfanifulferfas! Oh I can't spell it, let alone say it. Maybe Bowers could help you out. (Jim, I think Annie has something very important to tell you.)

Fri., March 16—I'm not proud; I'll fill up this space—Wish me Happy Birthday tomorrow.

Mon., March 19—Holy Week services began, and they are really nice.

Tues., March 20—These kids are doing a wonderful job. Now would be a good time to give Miss Cage credit for producing.

Wed., March 21—Rev. Thompson took the part of Jesus in the Last Supper.

Thurs., March 22—Since we're out for Friday, we had the Resurrection.

Fri., March 23—Sr. play practice at 9:00. Happy Easter everyone. See you in church in your new Easter bonnet.

Mon., March 26—Blue Monday again, and you can sure tell it in classes. What'cha get for your birthday, Pat?

Tues., March 27—Matinee for the Sr. play was given to see the reaction of the grade school kids. Oh dear . . . I sure . . . am . . . suffering . . . from . . . stage . . . fright! Sr. Tri-Hi-Y met tonight.

Wed., March 28—First performance. OK, Gerry, you lost your bet . . . you owe Bruce a chocolate milkshake. Congratulations Jackie! (Lewis that is)

Thurs., March 29—Would someone please loan some certain senior boys a dollar for a haircut. Congratulations, Keith, you remembered the blind.

Fri., March 30—O Boy, out at 3:00 to go home and rest till play time. Of course I went home to rest! Phill, the play's almost over; you can quit calling me Mom now.

APRIL

Sun., April 1—Had school today . . . April Fools.

Mon., April 2—I know, Willie, I said Monday, but you know how week-ends are! I always say: "Never do today what can be put off till tomorrow."

Tues., April 3—Religious program today. Rev. Thompson spoke.

Wed., April 4—All teachers have to stay after school today . . . Classroom Teacher's meeting at 4:15.

Thurs., April 5—Darn why aren't I a future teacher. F. T. A.'s are going to Ball State. Glea Ricker talked on the Mary's.

Fri., April 6—Another week has come to an end. Only seven more to go. As cold as it's been I'd believe it if we had winter all summer.

Mon., April 9—Grade schools are getting ready for a show for us now. I wonder who'll be queen of the Jr. Varieties.

Wed., April 11—Jr. Varieties show at 7:30. First track meet with Concordia, and I can't forget the Jr. Town meeting with Warsaw. The subject is on "Click's." What's your opinion?

Thurs., April 12—Parents and Teachers have to talk over adolescence meanness. P.T.A. meeting at 8:00.

Fri., April 13—This sure skips around, Jr. Varieties at 7:30 tonight. Another track meet, Let's go—faster—hurry, at Warsaw?

Mon., April 16—Are you going to see Thin, now. I mean Then and Now? Exchange Club's first performance of home talent is tonight.

Tues., April 17—Religious program. Indiana Central Choir—add them together and it means lots of time out from classes, but they're both worthy of the time.

Wed., April 18—So what?

Thurs., April 19—The audio visual is in the limelight with their get together.

Fri., April 20—More music. Say, girl, this is great. The Hanover College Men's Glee Club.

Mon., April 23—As the saying goes "That's good."

Tues., April 24—Preliminary enrollment. But I thought I was graduating. Oh, I see, it's just for the other poor students.

Wed., April 25—I couldn't figure this out, but it sounds good. Band parents and girls team! Search me! The Jr. High girls and G. A. A. has a rhythmical time.

Thurs., April 26—Test day for students in Naab's class.

Fri., April 27—The track team is running and jumping like mad. S'pose Coach B. has a whip after them.

Mon., April 30—Guess this month end's too!

MAY

Tues., May 1—Wake up, Seniors, May's here.

Wed., May 2—Stores close today, so I guess I will too.

Thurs., May 3—I knew the track boys had something in their hollow heads. Conference meet at Peru.

Fri., May 4—Sorry, but I'm in a hurry to get out of school.

Mon., May 7—I guess a lot of people forget school begins on Monday.

Tues., May 8—Fore! Sorry, you missed me, try again! Golfers (not gofers) went to Plymouth. Didn't know we had any.

Wed., May 9—Time's short. Better get your Modulus money in. It's really a humdinger this year.

Thurs., May 10—Tennis—C. I. C. at Peru They say that game's full of love. That's for me.

Fri., May 11—U. S. now stands for Unlimited Spending. I've always wondered.

Mon., May 14—

I once had a classmate named Guesser
Whose knowledge got lesser and lesser.
It at last grew so small
He knew nothing at all—
And now he's a college professor.

Tues., May 15—Religious program.

Wed., May 16—I don't even care—do you?

Thurs., May 17—The K. B. F. winners are honored guests of the Kiwanis Club this noon.

Fri., May 18—Gee, the Seniors look nice. I just know I'll cry when the march starts. Achievement Day. Juniors, take a good look cause you're next.

Mon., May 21—Baccalaureate was yesterday. The halls are so quiet this week. Harvey's gone.

Tues., May 22—Underclassmen are finishing up tests this week, while Seniors loaf! You will have your chance.

Wed., May 23—Books were collected today. No more till next September.

Thurs., May 24—Junior-Senior Reception. All the secrets of the tight lipped Juniors come out now, and it's really pretty.

Fri., May 25—Commencement at 8:00. The last day of the week, the last year of H. H. S. for Seniors is over. Good luck, Seniors, in future years. May the underclassmen have as happy years as we have had. The memories will linger with me always as the diary is closed till next year.

Hartford City got 18 points in the fourth quarter to win the game. Townseed led the Airedales with 18 while Bond got 10 for the Vikes.

Huntington 54 Marion 55

Playing one of the top teams in the state, the Vikes put up a terrific battle only to lose in the dying seconds. A 21 point second quarter brought the Vikings back into the game. Another rally in the fourth quarter almost won the game for them. Hum led the Norsemen with 15, while Fisher got 23 for Marion.

Huntington 39 Fort Wayne South 47

The Vikes stayed with South for 3 quarters, but were outscored in the final quarter 14-7 and lost 47-39. Dick Lintner led the Sea Rovers with 14, while Gene Kowns ripped the nets for 22 for the Archers.

Huntington 41 Elwood 57

In a slow first half, Elwood took the lead over the Vikings 17-16. But the one hand push shots of Huntsinger broke the Vikes' backs and Elwood triumphed 47-41. Huntsinger scored 16 for Elwood, while Hum matched this total for the Vikes.

Huntington 48 Decatur 60

The Decatur Yellow Jackets burst loose for 20 points in the second quarter and defeated the Vikings 60-48. Lintner and Hunnicutt missed this game. Beemler and Hum each got 13 to lead the Vikes, Strickler got 17 for Decatur.

Huntington 53 Fort Wayne Central 66

Fort Wayne Central defeated the Vikes for the second time this year. A 21 point third quarter won for Central. Overholt again led the Tigers with 16, but got help from Seals. Dick Glenn and Handwork got 14 each for the Vikings.

Huntington 42 Tipton 47

The Vikes went into a deep freeze in the last quarter against the Blue Devils and only scored 2 points. Doug Hum sparked the Vikes into a lead before the last quarter and ended up with 19 points. Burket scored 18 for Tipton.

Huntington 54 East Chicago Washington 64

The Vikes held the vaunted Washington team to a 10 point victory in this one. Washington had to score 20 points in the last quarter to win the game. Molodet scored 20 points to lead the Senators, while Handwork scored 17, and Glen added 14 for the Vikes.

Huntington 56 Richmond 44

The Vikings broke a nine game losing streak by defeating a young Richmond team 56-44. Dick Lintner had his best night of the year as he cashed in on 22 points. Subs played a big part of the second half.

Huntington 44 Plymouth 41

The Vikes closed the regular season with a victory over Plymouth. The Norsemen trailed 27-15 at half, but outscored Plymouth 29-14 in the second half to win 44-41. Hum led the Vikes with 15 while Scheetz had the same total for Plymouth.

Huntington 66 Township 33

The Norsemen opened up tournament play with a victory over Huntington Township. It was an easy victory for the Vikes as they doubled the score on the Bearcats. Hum again led the Vikes with 12, while Schwob led the Bearcats with 17 points.

Huntington 57 Lancaster 59

The Vikes were eliminated from tournament play on a long shot by Goodmiller of Lancaster with seconds left when he sank it. The Vikings trailed all the way and by as much as 15 points. Goodmiller led Lancaster with 23, while Hunnicutt played the greatest game of his career, scored 22.
